PRESIDENT'S CORNER

It is JUBILEE time—thank you to all our members who are volunteering for badge sales and everything else. We will not have a monthly meeting at the Vet's Hall, but the Jubilee will be going strong.

In November and December, I will be selling raffle tickets for a dwarf apple tree donated by the California Rare Fruit Growers. This tree will have both Pink Lady and Braeburn apples, with full-size fruit on a tree only about 85% of the size of a standard tree. It was grafted by Marv Daniels and Tucker Schmidt of the CRFG Central Coast Chapter. This is a terrific raffle prize—be sure to set aside some money for extra tickets!

We are taking nominations for the upcoming election of the board of directors. A list will be published in the November newsletter. If there is someone you would like to nominate, or if you would like to run for an office or be on the board, please get those names to us.

Happy Jubilee!

MEA CULPA

I need to apologize to Night Blooming Jazzmen. They will have a gospel set at Jazz Jubilee, not a gossip set (as stated in the emailed September newsletter). I really hate the auto-correct feature—it always changes my words; even my name changes from Shonda to Shined. Their gospel set is a hymn sing-along, so bring your voices (good or bad), but leave the gossip at home.

JUBILEE NEWS

Join us at Jazz Jubilee by the Sea! There will be three days of music and dancing in five venues in Pismo Beach and Arroyo Grande. More than 20 of the best bands from around the United States will be playing a wide range of music, including vintage jazz, New Orleans jazz, swing, ragtime, big band, zydeco, Mardi Gras, and dance party tunes. We'll be in Pismo at the Vet's Hall, SeaCrest Banquet Room, and the tent at the end of Addie Street on the boardwalk, and in Arroyo Grande at the South County Regional Center (Rueben's Rendezvous) and the Arroyo Grande Woman's Community Center (Pat's Place). Pick a venue and let the bands come to you! Food, drinks, and free bus service are available.

Did you hear about the special sets?

FRIDAY Cornet Chop Suey will do a tribute to Louis Armstrong, Midiri Brothers will have a tribute to Benny Goodman, High Street—"Salute to the 60's Veterans", Ivory & Gold—"Sophie and Bess", and Jeff Barnhart—"Silent Movies". There will be both a swing/lindy hop dance and an evening of traditional jazz from 6 to 9:40 p.m.

SATURDAY Prof. Cunningham has a tribute to Fats Domino, Au Brothers will do a set of "Politically Incorrect Songs", Midiri Brothers play tribute to Artie Shaw, Pat Yankee will have a Pajama Party, and we have a dance party featuring five bands that starts at 4:40 and goes until 11 p.m., with the All New High Street Party Band capping the night off (they really know how to party!). Or you can enjoy an evening of traditional jazz, 4:40 – 9:40 p.m., at the Pismo Veteran's Hall.

SUNDAY we wind down with gospel sets at 9:00, 10:20, and 11:40 a.m. All the way from New Orleans we have Tom Hook and the Terriers doing a Mardi Gras set, and the Shake 'em Up Jazz Band will have a tribute to female composers. New this year, our local Mariachi Autlence band will perform early California mariachi tunes at 11:40 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. High Sierra Jazz Band's final performance at our Jazz Jubilee will be happening at 3:40 p.m. in the South County Regional Center.

They are retiring in April after Jazz Affair, so this is one of your last chances to hear this fantastic band.

Meet some of the Jubilee bands!

Cornet Chop Suey has enjoyed a rapid rise since 2001 when they performed for the first time at the Sacramento Jazz Jubilee. The seven-piece band plays traditional jazz, swing, blues, and big production numbers, as well as pop tunes in their own exciting style. The band is named after an obscure Louis Armstrong composition and performs a Louis Armstrong set at most festivals. When they finish "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" there isn't a dry eye in the crowd. Every performance is a high-energy one and is always memorable for the audience. Many of the musicians in the band were with other very popular bands before joining Cornet Chop Suey, and are also top-notch educators. When they are in the Pismo area, they love to visit Jocko's in Nipomo.

Blue Street just had their 35th anniversary, founded in 1983 by trumpet player Forrest Helmick. Currently under the leadership of trombonist Dave Ruffner, the band has been one of the most innovative groups in traditional jazz. Blue Street is a true force of musicality, integrity, stability, and professionalism in the performance of Dixieland jazz. They have a very talented crew, including Sheri Colby-Bottel, who has a truly amazing voice. While traditional jazz is the cornerstone of Blue Street, they are known for their eclectic tastes in music, also performing swing, Mardi Gras, folk songs, marches, waltzes, and gospel music. They will have an old-fashioned gospel set at Jazz Jubilee.

All New High Street Party Band is a band you could never fall asleep through. They are upbeat and high-energy—your toes will be tapping, your hips will be swaying. You can jump, jive, and wail with this swing band! The powerful horn section will blow you away. They play tunes from the 40's to the 90's—all the top dance hits, Top 40, jazz, R&B, blues, Motown, funk, and good ol' rock and roll—High Street does it ALL!! When High Street shows up in their Zoot Suits, it's always a party and you're invited! Put on some dancing shoes and rock out with the band. They will also have a gospel set that is very uplifting and will leave you wanting more. Be sure to see their "60's Tribute to the Veterans".

The Shake-Em Up Jazz Band was formed in 2016 to inspire the students of an all-girls music camp in New Orleans, but right away the members realized they had discovered a compelling space to explore ensemble-style traditional jazz music. Made up of sought-after musicians in the New Orleans community, the six-piece ensemble fits together like a completed puzzle, full and spirited, with a powerfulness rooted in a deep affinity between the members and a shared adoration of hot jazz music. The powerhouse frontline of trumpeter Marla Dixon and clarinetist Chloe Feoranzo is remarkably deft at producing rich, soaring counterpoint that can grow to a fiery roar while remaining uncluttered. (Normally trombonist Haruka Kikuchi would also be on the frontline, but she is expecting a baby early in November! Guest artist Rebecca McKinley from Rag Bone Saints will be sitting in on a few sets.) Propelling them forward is the hearty rhythm and deep pocket produced by the rhythm section of guitarist Molly Reeves, bassist Julie Schexnayder, and percussionist Defne "Dizzy" Incirlioglu. The band's natural kinship and warmth invites audiences of listeners and dancers alike to enjoy a more inclusive experience, leaving them with the feeling that they've made six new friends.

Professor Cunningham and His Old School is one of the most sought-after groups on the international swing scene, performing around the world at major events and festivals. This award-winning New York-based band performs the most swinging and grooving repertoire, deeply steeped in the New Orleans tradition, from early jazz to early R&B in the aesthetic of Sidney Bechet, Fats Waller, Professor Longhair, and even Fats Domino! Formed and fronted by in-demand reedman and vocalist Adrian Cunningham (an Australian native based in NYC), Professor Cunningham and His Old School consists of some of the most energetic and accomplished musicians on the New York scene. The band has been a regular hit in the NYC underground party and swing-dance scene since its formation in 2012. From the rich musical and cultural tradition of New Orleans, they bring Mardi Gras to you! With a roaring horn section playing the great tunes from early jazz to rhythm & blues, you'll feel like you are on Bourbon Street. You'll be back to the age of Prohibition, when the parties were cool and the dancing was hot!

OCTOBER SUNDAY SESSION AND BBQ

The BBQ was a great success; we had a very large crowd. The day started out with our normal jam session with songs like Pennies from Heaven, Ice Cream, and I'm Gonna Sit Right Down and Write Myself a Letter. Creole Syncopators played as the headliner band. Paul Reid was the sub on the piano and Howard Myata was subbing on the tuba. In their first set, they gave us songs like Hello Central, Give Me Doctor Jazz and Hurry on

Down, and Precious Lord Take My Hand was dedicated to Tom Dutard. Howard sang Yowl Man, which the ukulele group got a real kick out of. In the second set they played songs like Dream a Little Dream, Porter's Love, Once in a While, and Sweet Lorraine. The Oasis Ukulele Band played as our intermission band. The group was very large—I estimate about 30 members were on the dance floor, where they sat because the stage was just too small. Everyone enjoyed the music and sang along to songs like Ain't She Sweet, All of Me, Bye-Bye Love, Love Potion No. 9, and Somewhere Over the Rainbow. A very tasty lunch of tri-tip, beans, salad, and garlic bread was served with desserts to follow. There was lots of dancing and we even had a parasol parade. Everyone had a wonderful time. A giant “thank you” to Jeff and Rhonda Cardinal for hosting this wonderful event. Also a big “thank you” to the crew who helped make it possible, set up, served, sold tickets, and cleaned up. We would be lost without our great volunteers. Check out our Facebook page to see all the photos from the day and our YouTube channel to see the videos.

Tom Hook and the Terriers. Musician-songwriter Tom Hook began his career in Kansas City, Missouri, performing in regional jazz and rock bands, and working as a stage performer at Worlds of Fun theme park. In 1980 Tom began a long association with the Delta Steamboat Company as a lounge entertainer, but then added staff musician, bandleader, manager of entertainment, director of entertainment, and cruise director to his resume. He also worked at Disney World as a staff musician, then portrayed Sam the Bartender at the Diamond Horseshoe. Tom was one of the opening entertainment staff at Pat O'Brien's nightclub at Universal Studios City Walk in Florida. Tom is the proud owner of the coveted “Golden Woody”, awarded to City Walk's premier entertainer annually. He was the music director at the Main Street Station Casino in Las Vegas. Recently Tom co-wrote and starred in the Big Easy Award-winning production of “Jump Jive and Wail, the Music of Louis Prima” at the National World War II Museum in New Orleans.
