Welcome to Jazz Jubilee Central Coast 2026!

by Rhonda Cardinal

The Basin Street Regulars, also known as BSR, is a hot jazz society created in 1976 by Bob Connolly and K. O. Eckland, along with five other interested people. As news spread about this new Dixieland Jazz society, more people joined the planning of the organization. K. O. Eckland, musician, artist, writer, and a unique character, continued to be very active in the BSR for the rest of his life and designed the seagull "Jazzper" as the mascot of BSR.

The first Sunday Session (concert) was held at Trader Nick's (now Vista) in the banquet room. The house band was the local "Desolation Jazz Ensemble and Mess Kit Repair Battalion." High Sierra Jazz Band from Three Rivers was the guest band. Since that time, BSR has held monthly sessions, usually at the Veteran's Memorial Hall, on the last Sunday of the month except for holidays. BSR has also been hosting an October festival on the Central Coast for 50 years. The name has changed over the years from Jubilee by the Sea to Jazz Jubilee by the Sea and lately to Jazz Jubilee Central Coast. But the mission remains the same, to provide quality jazz shows for our local residents and our out-of-town guests in comfortable venues at a reasonable price. BSR was started as a Traditional Jazz Club, but we have expanded our repertoire over the last 10 years to broaden our appeal to a wider audience. Because it is our 50th anniversary, we are bringing two bands to our Jubilee Sunday session that honor the roots of traditional jazz. The first is the High Sierra Reunion Jazz Band. As noted above, this band was featured in the very first Sunday session of the newly formed Basin Street Regulars. The second is Blue Street- a band that has been in existence for 43 of our 50 years and has been featured in almost every festival produced by BSR. They are a perennial favorite amongst jazz fans of all ilk. They are joined by special guest Carl Sonny Leyland on piano- a player known internationally with local roots.

For the last three years, BSR has reached out to the community, encouraging jazz venues and bands to feature jazz shows during the last two weeks of October. BSR packages them up and advertises all of these shows to create a festival. This has proved to be easier for our volunteers and cost effective for all of the participants. We hope that you will view as many of these as possible, many are free and open to the public.

We also want you to come to the show hosted solely by BSR at the Vet's Hall on October 25th and enjoy our penultimate 50th year celebration with the High Sierra Reunion Jazz Band and Blue Street. Tickets will be available for sale at the door. See you there!

Featured Jazz Jubilee Central Coast Shows

Come to the Central Coast on the last full weekend in October and you will be able to see music all weekend long at spacious venues between Pismo Beach and Morro Bay. As you visit the various venues, you will see beautiful scenery, wineries, fabulous fall weather and experience all that the Central Coast has to offer.

Start your weekend on the evening of Friday, October 23rd at the Cal Poly Fall Jazz Concert: The Art of Jazz – starting at 7:30 p.m. Featuring selections exploring the diverse styles that have influenced 20th and 21st-century jazz performance. The concert will include performances by the University Jazz Band, Jazz Lab Band, and jazz combos. At the Cal Poly Performing Arts Center, SLO: 1 Grand Ave, San Luis Obispo, CA 93407. The on-site parking garage will accommodate all regular vehicles.

Tickets are $17 and $22 general, $12 students and Jazz Federation members. details here: music.calpoly.edu/calendar/jazz/

See All Three Shows Held Saturday the 24th!

We have a killer day lined up for you on Saturday, October 24th. It is possible for you to make it to all or part of three great shows, all in the same general vicinity.

Start your day with the Big Band Blowout at Cuesta College in the Performing Arts Center, CA-1, San Luis Obispo, CA 93405. This show starts at 1:00 in the afternoon and costs $10 general admission and free for students. We will be featuring two high school jazz bands and three college jazz bands. The high schools to be featured will be Paso Robles and Atascadero. The college bands will be Hancock (Santa Maria), Cuesta (San Luis Obispo) and Cal Poly (same). All of the bands will put on terrific performances, and you can see what the local schools are doing to promote jazz. The outdoor parking lot will accommodate all vehicles. This concert will end at approximately 3:15. Tickets are available here:

cuesta.universitytickets.com/w/event.aspx?id=1731

From Cuesta College on Highway 1, it is a short drive (8 miles, 12 minutes) out to the coast to Morro Bay, where you can see Blue Street at the Siren. Some of you may have never been inside the Siren, a restaurant and club in the heart of downtown Morro Bay. If you haven't gone there before, your opportunity has arrived! The Siren will be hosting Blue Street on Saturday, October 24th from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. This is a free show. The Siren has a great bar and great food. Tables are available throughout the indoor space and there is plenty of room for dancing. There is also an outside patio if you need to take a break for awhile. This is sure to be a high-energy show. The Siren management was kind enough to accommodate us and place our band in this space, so we want to fill it up and show them that it was worth it.

Street parking is readily available around this venue.

After the Siren show, head into San Luis Obispo (14 miles, 20 minutes) to see guitarist Bruce Forman performing with the Central Coast Jazz All-Stars at 7:30 PM at Mt Carmel Lutheran Church, 1701 Fredericks St, San Luis Obispo, CA. The All-Stars include Inga Swearingen, Dave Becker, Marshall Otwell, Ken Hustad, and Darrell Voss. Tickets are available for $35 and $25 on My805Tix. BSR members will get the member pricing for this SLO Jazz Federation show. SLO Jazz Fed members will get member pricing at the BSR Show at the Pismo Beach Vets Hall on Sunday. An outdoor parking lot is available as well as street parking. Tickets are available here: my805tix.com/e/bruceforman-bash

But don't go home yet, because on Sunday, the 25th, we will have Blue Street with special guest Carl Sonny Leyland as well as the High Sierra Reunion Jazz Band at the Veteran's Hall in Pismo Beach, 780 Bello Street, Pismo Beach, CA. This show starts at 11:00 and ends at 4:30. Blue Street and the High Sierra Reunion Jazz Band will perform alternating sets. Jazz Federation members will receive Basin Street Regulars member pricing for this show. A generous outdoor parking lot is available.

Tickets for this show can be purchased at the following link, or at the door. my805tix.com/e/jazzconcert-basinstreetregulars-bluestreet

Blue Street
Playing October 24 & 25

2025 marks the 42nd anniversary of the Blue Street Jazz Band, a true force of integrity, stability, and professionalism on the Dixieland Jazz Circuit. The Blue Street Jazz Band was established in 1983 by trumpet player Forrest Helmick and is currently under the leadership of trombonist Dave Ruffner. The band features the singing of Sherri Colby. Forrest passed away in December 2024,

Blue Street has been one of the most innovative groups in traditional jazz. Original songs and creatively conceived arrangements have been the hallmark of the band along with the musical expertise displayed by each individual member on their respective instrument. Traditional jazz is the cornerstone on which the band was built, but with their eclectic musical taste and versatile musicianship, the band is adept at playing Swing, Mardi Gras, Folk Songs, Marches, Waltzes, Latin Music, and Hymns. The band is capable of playing entire sets devoted to the music of Kid Ory, Jelly Roll Morton, Sidney Bechet, the History of Jazz, and Louis Armstrong. Audiences particularly enjoy the band's Sunday morning gospel programs.

The band has a mixture of full-time professional musicians along with some very accomplished part-time players. The front-line features Dave Ruffner on trombone and Justin Au on trumpet. You can find Dave playing trombone on Bourbon Street in New Orleans. Justin grew up with the genre, is a music educator in the Sacramento area and plays regularly with all the hot bands. He is one of the Au Brothers, all of whom play music on the trad jazz circuit. The rhythm section consists of drummer Rick Canfield, bassist Sam Rocha and Matt Bottel on guitar and banjo. Rick is a retired music teacher. He builds fine stringed instruments. Sam is a full-time musician in the Bay Area and performs nationwide with the Hot Club of San Francisco and other groups. Matt spent time in New Orleans playing banjo and designs major computer programs for major corporations and state governments. Special guest Carl Sonny Leyland will be sitting in on piano for the October shows. He is a pianist and vocalist of international renown. (More about Sonny below in this issue) The band's vocalist, Dr. Sherri Colby-Bottel, is the Program Director and co-faculty, International Honors Program/A Program of SIT Study Abroad.

Since the early 1990s, the band has played every major jazz festival in the United States and has performed in Canada, Mexico, and Europe as well. The band has recorded twenty-five albums and seven videos.

High Sierra Reunion Jazz Band
Playing October 25

The popular HIGH SIERRA JAZZ BAND retired after 44 years in April 2019. However, as it turned out, overwhelming enthusiasm demanded continuation in one form or another. The band continued as the HIGH SIERRA SEVEN until December 2023, after which the band morphed into the SIERRA STOMPERS. Recently, another modification resurfaced as SOUNDS LIKE HIGH SIERRA. All the time the music featured hard-driving West Coast style jazz for which the HIGH SIERRA JAZZ BAND was famous.

The HIGH SIERRA REUNION BAND, especially reformed for this event, is proud to perform at the 50th Anniversary of the JAZZ JUBILEE CENTRAL COAST on October 25, 2026, in Pismo Beach.

The High Sierra Jazz Band, in 2013

Traditional Bands in 2026

In honor of our 50th anniversary, we are going back to our roots and hiring many classic traditional bands in 2026; some of whom have been prominently featured in years gone by. We hope that you will appreciate seeing these legacy bands that have not graced our stage lately.

Crumbles Has Live
Jazz Music on Saturdays

Did you know that Crumbles Café and Bake Shop in Santa Maria has live jazz on Saturdays from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. The management of Crumbles wants to showcase live local talent and provides a space for up and coming jazz musicians to play for a live audience and earn tips in the process. If you want to have a late lunch some Saturday, support this effort to bring jazz to the heart of Santa Maria. If you are a jazz musician or combo that wants some public exposure, please contact the Manager at Crumbles. He is there almost every day from 8:00 to 4:00 p.m. They are closed on Tuesdays.

Rhonda Cardinal

In the Wings - November Show

by Rhonda Cardinal

We will not be hosting a show in November. Instead, the Basin Street Regulars is sponsoring the Cuesta Annual Vocal Jazz Festival, featuring a concert by The Sistering on November 14th at 8:00 p.m. The hottest new vocal jazz collective in the country, The Sistering, features Lois Deloatch, Nnenna Freelon, Kate McGarry, and Lenora Zenzalai Helm. Their first album came out in March and they performed at Carnegie Hall twelve days later!

The Sistering captures the pure magic that unfolds when four highly accomplished jazz artists join together to uplift and inspire one another—on and off the stage. Their compositions already reveal a beautifully interconnected journey through themes of family, love, loss, and badassery—rendering the project both a memoir and a cultural mirror.

Infused with soul, folk, funk, and spoken word, The Sistering ventures across wide musical terrain with improvisation at its heart. Song titles like “Combat Boots and Glass Slippers” by Lenora, “Circle” by Kate, “Follow the Stream” by Lois, and “A Brother Just Like You” by Nnenna hint at the emotional depth and narrative spirit behind the music.

Accompanied by a world-class jazz quartet, The Sistering takes shape as a powerful and vibrant testament to the power of creative alliance. Continuing that theme, Cuesta’s top student vocal ensemble, Cuesta Voce, will open the evening as well as close out the concert with our headliners in some spectacular large group pieces. It’ll be an unforgettable evening!

All nationally renowned educators, the members of The Sistering will be sharing their expertise with our Cuesta College music students throughout the festival.

More details will appear in our November newsletter.
